The Traveller must return the Rental to the agreed place and time on the agreed end date of the Rental Period, as described in the Booking Overview. In the event of non-delivery or late return of the Rental to the agreed location, a rate of 250% of the rent can be charged to the Traveller for each 24hrs that the Rental is returned late or its pro rata in case the late return is within 24hrs. The split of this extra charge is as follows: 200% of the rate is paid to the Owner and 50% to Camptoo.

12.2. If the Traveller cannot return the Rental to the Owner at the agreed place and time, the Traveller must record the final state of the Rental through the (digital) transfer form before handing over the Rental. 12.3. The Traveller must clean the Rental's interior (including toilet and tanks) and return the Rental in the same condition as it was on pick-up.

12.4. The Owner is responsible for accurately recording the condition of the Rental during the handover through the (digital) transfer form as described in Clause 8. Only if this has been done according to Clause 8 can the Owner claim any costs as mentioned in Clause 5.5.

12.5. The Owner is not permitted to force the Traveller to return the Rental earlier than the agreed upon end date of the Rental Period, unless:

- a) the Traveller explicitly agrees and the Rental is returned at a time and place agreed upon by the Traveller, after which a refund will be made of the days the Rental couldn't be used. The lost Camptoo service fee will be charged to the Owner; or
- b) the Owner can demonstrate that the Traveller misuses the vehicle twice or more, as described in Clause 9.4, in which case the Traveller must immediately return the Rental and must strictly follow the Owner's instructions. 12.6. If the Traveller wishes to return the Rental earlier, this must be done at a time and place that suits the Owner and that the Owner has agreed to. There will be no refund of the rental price unless the owner agrees to do so. The Camptoo service costs will not be refunded to the Traveller.

12.7. If the Owner is not present at the agreed place for the hand-over of the Rental, the Traveller is expected to record the condition of the Rental using the (digital) transfer form as described in Clause 8; this must be done in a true and fair way.

12.8. If the Owner asks a third party to hand-over the Rental, the Owner must inform the Traveller in writing. This information must include the name of this person. What the third party states in the (digital) transfer form is seen as if it is specified by the Owner. These rental conditions remain applicable to the Owner.

12.9. If the Traveller deliberately withholds the damage(s) caused to the Rental, the costs for the expertise, claims handling and additional administrative actions (such as reporting to the police for fraud) will be at the Traveller's expense.

Clause 13. Damage and insurance

If the Rental breaks down and/or is involved in an accident, the Traveller must immediately contact Camptoo and the the Owner (after following the necessary safety procedures and precautions) . Additionally, the Traveller must immediately complete the claim form and send a photograph of the completed and signed claim form to support@camptoo.com.au.

13.3. It is forbidden for the Traveller to repair a damage or defect without the written consent of either the Owner or the Insurer. In case the Traveller is allowed to contact the Insurer directly and the Insurer accepts the repair and the costs involved, the Owner is to be notified afterwards. In case the Owner has to consent to a repair and the costs involved, the Owner must do so as soon as reasonably possible but at least within 24 hours or come up with an equivalent alternative. If the Owner fails to comply with the above mentioned time frame, the Traveller is allowed to cancel the Rental Agreement, after which a refund will be made of the days the Rental couldn't be used. The lost Camptoo service fee will be charged to the Owner.

13.4. If the Rental is involved in a collision, the Traveller has to handle according to the local laws and regulations and a claim form must be signed by all parties involved, including in any case the Driver and the Traveller.

13.5. If the Traveller does not comply with Clauses 13.2-13.4, all costs resulting from this will be at the Traveller's expense.

13.6. All damage that is not eligible for reimbursement according to the Insurer's insurance conditions, with the exception of motor damage, always remain at the Traveller's expense, unless there is sufficient proof of negligence and/or recklessness on the driver's part.

13.7. An independent and qualified claim expert can determine the amount of the damage by means of photos of the damage, provided by the Owner. The amount for repair of the damage determined by the claim expert is binding between the Traveller and the Owner.

13.8. In the event of damage, the repair costs must be reported to Camptoo by the Owner through the Website within 10 working days upon return, including a quote and photos clearly showing the damage. If the Owner fails to do so, the right to compensation will expire. If the Owner wishes to do so, an independent expert can be called in as mentioned in Clause 13.7, whereby the costs for the claim expert will be at the Owner's expense.

13.9. If the Traveller does not agree with the repair costs indicated by the Owner, the Traveller can have this verified in accordance with Clause 13.7 within 10 working days after the initial damage claim has been communicated. Camptoo will inform the Owner of this. If the difference between the amount of the damage indicated by the Owner and the amount determined by the independent claim expert is less than £50, the costs for the claim expert will be at the Traveller's expense. If the amount of the damage is more than £50 cheaper, the costs of the independent claim expert will be at the Owner's expense. If the independent claim expert requires additional pictures of the damage where the damage is clearly visible, the Owner must make the additional pictures available to the claim expert within two working days. If this does not happen within the two days, the deposit will be settled and (the remainder of) the bond will be refunded to the Traveller.

Clause 14. Cancellation of the Rental Agreement

14.1. The Traveller must refuse the Rental if he/she believes (within reason) that it is not suitable and / or the amenities and / or accessories do not match the advertisement as shown on the Website. The Traveller may cancel the Rental Agreement if this occurs. The Traveller does not have to pay any costs in this case, and Camptoo will charge the Owner with administration costs of $20 and a 15% cancellation fee. In this case, the already paid Rent and bond will be paid back in full to the Traveller. If the Traveller decides to use the Rental nonetheless, then this is entirely at the risk of the Traveller.

14.2. The cancellation conditions apply to the Rental Agreement and are specified in the advertisement and agreed to when the Traveller pays for the reservation request.

14.3. The Owner is allowed to cancel the Rental Agreement free of charge before the Traveller has paid the down payment. After the down payment, the Owner can only cancel the Rental Agreement free of charge in the following cases: if in the Rental Agreement between the Owner and the previous Traveller a situation occurs as described in Clause 13.2.

If a Rental Agreement is canceled after the Traveller has paid the down payment, then Camptoo will charge the Owner with a £100 cancellation fee per canceled Rental Agreement irrespective of the booking length, and in addition the Owner will be charged any rebooking costs up to a maximum of £250 per cancelled Rental Agreement. Camptoo tries to minimize these rebooking costs.

14.4. In the event of a cancellation by the Owner, Camptoo will try its best to find a suitable replacement vehicle available to the Traveller, which the Traveller has to accept. Any rebooking costs exceeding € 250 will be at the Traveller's expense. If the Owner has received too much rental income due to the cancellation of a Rental Agreement, the Owner must return the surplus to Camptoo within two working days.

14.5. The Owner is entitled to cancel the Rental Agreement if the Traveller is not present on the agreed upon date, place and time as stated in the Reservation Overview. The cancellation conditions for the Traveller apply as stated in the Reservation Overview.

14.6. If a party fails to comply with the obligations of this agreement, the other party can immediately terminate the Rental Agreement without notice and court intervention. The cancellation conditions as mentioned in Clause 14.2 remain applicable.

14.7. If the Traveller cancels the Rental Agreement without a reason as stated in Clause 14.1, then the cancellation conditions as stated in the Reservation Overview apply. If a surplus remains after the cancellation conditions have been applied, this surplus will be refunded to the Traveller. If there is an outstanding balance after the cancellation conditions have been applied, this will be charged to the Traveller.

Clause 15. Administration costs

15.1. Camptoo can charge the Traveller with administration costs of up to £20, if the Traveller does not comply with the rental conditions, resulting in Camptoo having to perform additional administrative procedures:

- If the remaining payment is not paid on time (Clause 5.3);
- If the bond is not paid on time (Clause 6.1);
- If the Traveller refuses the Rental (Clause 14.1);
- When processing additional costs (Clause 5.5);
- When processing additional costs after the bond has been settled (Clause 5.5).

Clause 16. Ownership and liability

16.1. The Rental will always remain the Owner's property. The Traveller is not permitted to tax or sell the Rental.

16.2. The Owner is not liable for the Traveller's, driver's or travel companion's damage, according to the Rental Agreement, unless there is negligence or recklessness on the Owner's part.

Other payments to the recipient will be processed no later than 5 working days after the money has been received from the debtor. Camptoo does not provide any prepayments and / or advances for rental income, additional costs, fines, tolls and / or other payments.

17.4. Upon the Traveller's or Owner's request, Camptoo can mediate a conflict between the Traveller and the Owner. Camptoo tries to find a solution through mediation that is acceptable for the Traveller and the Owner. If Camptoo needs a response and / or additional information to be able to continue handling the case, Camptoo may set a time within which the additional information must be submitted by the Traveller and / or Owner. If the Traveller and / or Owner do not comply with the set time frame, Camptoo has the right to make a binding decision based on the known information and available documentation.
